NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
: KRVH EURDG VWULSHV DQG EULJKW VWDUV WKURXJK WKH
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
* DYH SURRI WKURXJK WKH QLJKW WKDW RXU ÁDJ ZDV VW
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Francis Scott Key

The Origin and History of Academic Regalia

The wearing of academic regalia goes back a long way, to the 12th century. Everyone wore “gowns”— professional people alone wore the gown as a visible token of their profession.

The hood came along in the 13th century. Originally it was called a “chaperon,” and was a kind of pointed bag with an oval opening for the face. It went through several phases, including one as a turban, before it settled down to its present shape and function, the latter being an indicator of rank as shown by color combinations.

As for the mortarboard(also called cap and originally “Biretta”), its origin is not so well document - ed. Some say it was derived from the master workman’s actual mortar board. Others say it began at Oxford, and was named for that school’s quadrangular campus. The best guess is that, inasmuch as and put the soft square biretta on over the skull cap when they went outdoors, the mortarboard result - ed from combining the two into a single head covering.

The degree colors are appropriate to the category of the degree, rather than to the scholar’s major subject. For example, the appropriate color for degrees in Arts and Letters is white; in Business, drab; in Education, light blue; in Law, purple; in Music, pink; in Nursing, apricot; in Philosophy, dark blue; in Religion, scarlet; in Science, golden yellow. These colors are used for the trim of all hoods and may be used for the velvet facing and sleeve bars on doctors’ gowns and tassels on bachelors’ and masters’ caps. The institutional colors, with which the hoods are lined, indicate the university or college granting the degree. The colors for Troy University are cardinal and black.

Academic regalia have survived the changes and upheavals of the centuries. Long, long ago, they
